CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. The Commission found reason to believe that Sally Perz ("Respondent") knowingly and willfully violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and Respondent, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over Respondent and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondent enters voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

1. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), prohibits any person from making a contribution in the name of another, or for any person knowingly to permit his or her name to be used to make such a contribution. See

2 U.S.C. § 441f. Moreover, no person may knowingly help or assist any person in making a contribution in the name of another. 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(iii).

2. During the 2003-2004 election cycle, a person could contribute no more than $2,000 to a candidate and his or her authorized committee per election. See 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

3. On October 30, 2003, Bush-Cheney '04, Inc. hosted a campaign fundraiser at the Hyatt Regency hotel in Columbus, Ohio, to which the admission fee was a $2,000 contribution – the maximum amount an individual could give to Bush-Cheney '04, Inc.

4. On May 31, 2006, Thomas W. Noe pled guilty to federal charges of making illegal conduit contributions in connection with the October 30, 2003 campaign fundraiser. The indictment stated that Mr. Noe used $45,400 of his funds to make contributions over the legal limits, and concealed the true source of the contributions by making them in the names of other individuals, known as “conduits,” and also recruited “super-conduits,” who not only acted as conduits but also recruited additional conduits and passed funds from Mr. Noe to those additional conduits.

5. The indictment further stated that Thomas W. Noe requested that each conduit contribute money to Bush-Cheney '04, Inc. in his or her own name and attend the fundraiser; provided funds to conduits as an advance on or reimbursement for their contribution; and took steps to conceal the activity by making payments to several conduits in amounts slightly below the amount of the conduits' contribution, and by instructing several conduits that, if asked in the future about the payments, they should lie and say the payments were a loan from Mr. Noe.

6. Thomas W. Noe provided a check to Respondent in the amount of $3,900. Half of this amount, 1,950, was to be used by Respondent as an advance on or reimbursement for Respondent's $2,000 contribution to Bush-Cheney '04, Inc.

7. The knowing and willful standard requires knowledge that one is violating the law. See Federal Election Commission v. John A. Dramesi for Congress Committee, 640 F. Supp. 985, 987 (D. N.J. 1986).

8. Respondent filled out a donor card stating that she was making the $2,000 contribution with her personal funds when, in fact, Mr. Noe's funds were used to make $1,950 of the contribution.

9. On April 20, 2005, Respondent repaid the $1,950 advanced to her by Mr. Noe. Respondent contends that she made the $1,950 repayment to Noe prior to having any knowledge of the investigation being conducted by either state or federal investigators.

V. Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f by permitting her name to be used to effect a contribution made in the name of another. The Commission has evidence it believes is sufficient to demonstrate that this violation was knowing and willful, but Respondent does not admit to the knowing and willful aspect of the violation.

VI. Respondent will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in the amount of Seven Thousand Dollars ($7,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

VII. Respondent will cease and desist from violating 2 U.S.C. § 441f by permitting her name to be used to effect a contribution made in the name of another or by assisting a person in making a contribution in the name of another.

VIII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

IX. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

X. Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

XI. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be enforceable.
